Recruitment Information

ALTERNATIVE RESPONSE OFFICER SPECIAL CONSTABLE

Great care is taken to ensure that the right people are selected to become Alternative Response Officers (ARO). The recruitment and selection process contain many stages; each step critical to ensuring a positive person-job fit. From start to finish, the process can take a number of months. Processing time is no reflection on the quality of an application.

Once selected, the successful candidate will be sworn in as a Special Constable and begin training at the Saskatoon Police Service Headquarters. All new, untrained Special Constables will participate in eight weeks of learning, divided between classroom time and on-the-job training. The first four weeks will be based in the classroom, focusing on such topics as: law, internal Saskatoon Police Service procedures, defensive tactics, de-escalation processes, Saskatoon human service agencies, cross-cultural intelligence and police-oriented Calls to Action and Calls to Justice.

The final four weeks will comprise practical, on-the-job training under the supervision of Field Training Officers and the Alternative Response Sergeant. The focus of this training segment will include: community engagement strategies, minor enforcement processes, report taking procedures, and conduct with arrested and apprehended persons.

Applicants who possess Community Safety Officer Certification from another Saskatchewan municipality or province will have their prior training and experience assessed on a case-by-case basis.

PERSONAL DISCLOSURE FORM and TRUTH VERIFICATION

Before writing answers to the questions contained in this Personal Disclosure Form (PDF), Applicants are advised to:

- carefully read all information and notices on Pages 1, 2, and 3;
- read, initial and sign the Declaration, Acknowledgement and Consent on Page 4;
- follow the instructions listed on Page 5.

Honesty, Integrity and Ethics are scrutinized closely in considering police officer applications. The PDF and Truth Verification are used to assist in determining an applicant's suitability for employment as a police officer with the Saskatoon Police Service.

The PDF pertains to your ethics and your integrity. You, as the applicant, must first complete the PDF by answering all questions accurately, completely, thoroughly and honestly. Minimizing, blaming, and failure to accept responsibility will be closely monitored. Should you be considered to continue in the process, your answers will be verified by a variety of methods including a detailed background investigation and Truth Verification.

Should you be successful at all preceding stages of the Recruiting process, you will be requested to participate in Truth Verification by means of a Pre-Employment Polygraph (PEP). The purpose of the PEP is to assist in verifying your truthfulness, and in verifying that you are the person you claim to be in your employment application forms, questionnaires, and interviews.

Be advised that deceit, dishonesty or non-disclosure concerning questions in any part of the application process will likely result in disqualifying you from this and any future employment competitions with the Saskatoon Police Service.

You are not obliged to provide any information that relates to a conviction for which a pardon has been received or a conviction that was processed pursuant to the Young Offenders Act (R.S.C., 1985, c. Y-1, now repealed) or the Youth Criminal Justice Act (S.C., 2002, c.1).

You are under no obligation to disclose any information regarding a crime where you were a victim.

Your decision to complete the PDF and to participate in the PEP must be voluntary, based on your desire to pursue a career as a police officer. You may withdraw or stop the application process at any time. You may refuse to provide answers to any or all of the questions contained in the PDF or at the PEP. Such a refusal may result in your disqualification from the Recruiting Process.

You may amend your response(s) to any question(s) in the PDF at any time prior to the scheduled date for your PEP, by contacting the Recruiting Unit.
